JANUARY 2002

securing equality for the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender community

REPRESENT YOURSELF!

Tulsa Oklahomans for Human Rights, along with Soulforce in Oklahoma and PFLAG Tulsa marched in the Martin Luther King Jr. Parade last month.

Nearly a 4 hour wait to cross the starting line (lined up directly behind a Boy Scouts float-see page 5 for related story) the TOHR float "Visualize Equality" was hard to miss as it reached 12' in the air, took up the width of the street and fluttered in the wind—thanks to the use of the largest pride flag in the state.

Thanks to the all who marched in the MLK Parade and helped with construction the day before the Parade.

And—make plans to take the day off and represent yourself at next year's MLK Parade.

The TOHR float "Visualizing Equality" flows down the street, making a colorful statement of equality.

Just crossing the starting line, marchers carry the banner and prepare to unfurl the flag.

CINEMA HISTORY

- The first dramatizations of lesbian and gave life on film came from Europe during the silent film era. The earliest example still extant is "The Wings" (1916), a Swedish film by gay director Mauritz Stiller, about a sculptor who falls in love with one of his male models.
- "Different from the Others" (1919), the first cinematic plea for tolerance for homosexuals was directed by Richard Oswald (Germany).

ADVOCACY IN ACTION

TULSA OKLAHOMANS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS HAS A PLACE AT THE TABLE

An increased presence brings increased representation throughout the city of Tulsa. Tulsa Oklahomans for Human Rights (TOHR) takes a stand for the GLBT allied community and is represented on the following:

- Say No to Hate Coalition (a coalition of several groups)
- Tulsa Race Relations Committee (Tulsa Police Department)
- Diversity Leadership Council (American Red Cross)
- Public Health & Safety Task Force (Mental Health Association in Tulsa)
- Legal Service Referrals Providers Forum (University of Tulsa)
- Speakers Bureau (University of Tulsa)

TOHR - SECURING EQUALITY BY EDUCATING THOSE AROUND US.

GLBT AGING GENERATIONS

- At least one to three million Americans over 65 years of age are gay, lesbian, or bisexual

The number and proportion of GLBT elders will increase significantly over the next few decades, along with the over-all elder population. By 2030, one in five Americans will be 65 or older. Roughly four million will be GLB. About five percent of elder women, and four percent of elder men, have never married in their lifetime. It is likely that many of them are gay or lesbian and that many GLBT people are not counted in this statistic because they had been legally married to an opposite-sex partner at some point in their life. National voter exit polls in 1998 report that 8.3 percent of the GLB electorate is 65 years and older. The population estimates above do not include transgender people because there are no national data available on transgender people in the U.S.

- Racial and ethnic diversity among GLB people mirrors that of the general population.

There is little research on people of color, seniors, sexual orientation and gender identity. However, we can point out some available data. Voter exit polls show that GLBT people are distributed proportionately among racial categories. In medium and large sized cities voter exit polls report that: 17% of GLB voters are African American, while the overall African American electorate is 16%, five percent of the urban GLB vote is Latino (5.6% overall).

U.S. Census Bureau data from 1990 show that: 16 percent of all Americans over 65 years of age are ethnic minorities, while 84% are white, non-Hispanic. Of this group eight percent are African American, five percent Latino, two percent Asian and Pacific Islander and less than one percent Native American. By 2050, it is expected that 66% of seniors will be white, non-Hispanic; 16% will be Latino, ten percent Black, seven percent Asian Pacific Islander and one percent Native American.

- GLBT Elders may be more likely to face poverty and economic insecurity.

Gay men and lesbians face income discrimination. Gay men earn as much as 27% less than heterosexual men. Lesbians and heterosexual women have little income difference, but women as a category persistently make significantly less than their male counterparts. Income discrimination coupled with the lack of legal recognition of same-sex partners has serious economic consequences for GLBT elderly. Social Security pays survivor benefits to widows and widowers, but not to the surviving same-sex partner of someone who dies. This may cost GLBT elders $124 million a year in unaccessible benefits.

The above is a portion of: Outing Age: Public Policy Issues Affecting Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Elders, a report by the Policy Institute of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force Foundations Aging Initiative.

“GET AWAY FROM THAT NASTY TRUCK”

HATE IS TAUGHT AT AN EARLY AGE

Surprises are called surprises for a reason - they catch you off guard.

The recent Martin Luther King Jr. Parade held surprises for two very different groups.

The TOHR contingent arrived at the parade staging area only to realize we were lined up directly behind a Boy Scout of America entry.

TOHR members viewed this as an opportunity for education. After all, we all were participating in the Martin Luther King parade together.

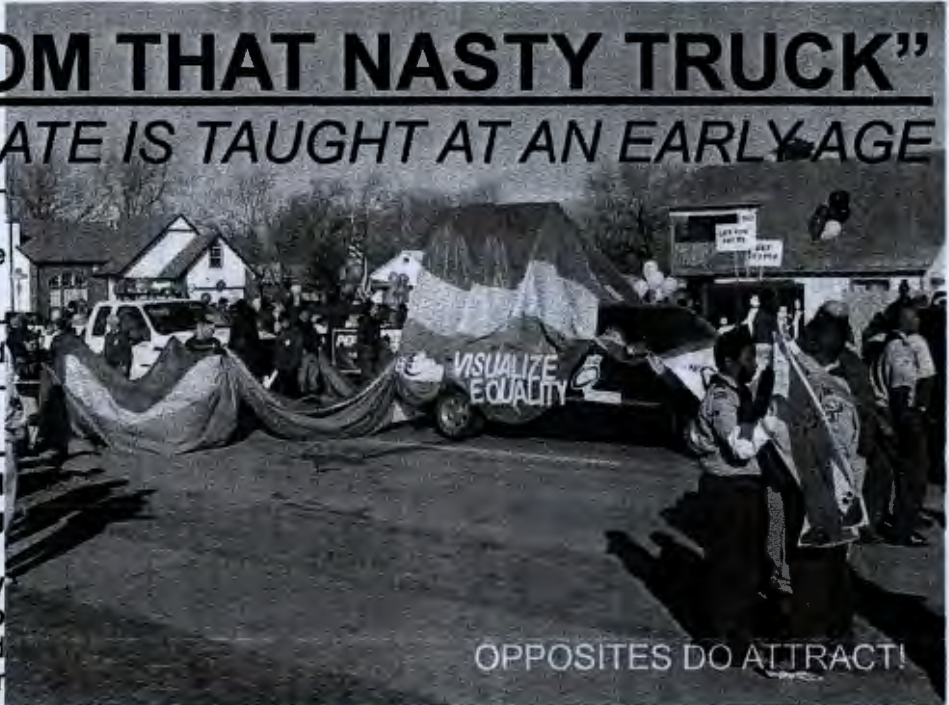

However, to the leaders of the Boy Scout troop - it was an opportunity to teach hate. Upon realizing who was behind them in the line-up, scout leaders worked for nearly 30 minutes to move their truck to the empty adjacent lane (space was very limited with approximately 3 feet between entries), but they didn't stop there.

“GET AWAY FROM THAT NASTY TRUCK” the leaders told their troops after a few of the scouts wandered around the huge flag admiring the flowing colors.

Now, we all know the Boy Scouts of America hate the GLBT community. Yes, hate is the appropriate word - you hate what you fear and obviously these leaders fear our community. (to be fair, it could be a phobia of trucks or large pieces of cloth, but somehow that seems doubtful).

But c'mon - teaching hate at the Martin Luther King Parade?
Sad, isn't it.

NEW COMPUTER SYSTEM INSTALLED

THANKS TO THE GILL FOUNDATION

TOHR recently completely a year of partnership with the Denver based Gill Foundation through the OutGiving InCommunity project. OutGiving provided over 25 local non-profits access to fundraising and structuring seminars during 2001.

One aspect of the partnership between the Gill Foundation and Tulsa Oklahomans for Human Rights was the inclusion of a brand new computer system including hardware, software, scanner, and two (2) new computers w/ monitors.

This enables TOHR to be more efficient in all aspects of the management of the organization.

Thanks to the Gill Foundation for making 2001 the best year TOHR has experienced! (and Hi to Russell, Patty, Janet, and all the faculty and staff at the Gill.

what's going on at the

NEW GROUPS AT CENTER SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

- Womyns Coming Out Group

Started last December, this group is growing as womyn across the NE Oklahoman area realize they're not alone in the lifelong coming out process. Meets every other Saturday, call for exact date, at 4:30 PM.

- GLBT Aging Generations

The GLBT aging community faces discrimination on many levels. This group works in cooperation with other local organizations in order to explore the needs of the aging community and how best to address the needs.

- Butch / Femme

Do you feel that you just can't relate to other lesbians? Not a "tweener" but know who you are. Comfortable in your relationship and with yourself. Being labeled a Butch or a Femme doesn't bother you. Then you need to join us. Meets on the 1st Saturday of the month at the Tulsa GLBT Community Center at 7 PM.

IN THE PLANNING STAGES

- OUTyouth

Working in partnership with organizations in Tulsa, OUTyouth is for young adults interested in working with the GLBT community to better themselves and their community.

- Parents of the Rainbow

A new program for those in the GLBT community with children or who are planning on having children. One aspect of this program will be a "Parent's Night Out" where child-care will be provided at the Tulsa GLBT Community Center. Dates / times will be announced shortly. Watch your e-mail notices.
