A FEW THOUGHTS

by Ann, LRC President

I have heard all my life that "what doesn't kill you will make you stronger". The Lesbian Resource Centre has been given an unexpected opportunity to grow stronger. As you probably know by now, three women who have been vital to the centre's growth and stability have resigned. Christine Jarosz, Lisa Mashigian, and Deb Floyd have decided to put their energies elsewhere. We acknowledge and appreciate all that they have done to contribute to the centre. As a member or friend of the Lesbian Resource Centre, you can be confident that the centre will continue to grow as we attempt to serve the lesbian community of Dallas.

I gave a very blunt challenge at the board meeting in which we were informed of the resignations. With the deepest regards for the centre and the dignity of lesbians, I suggested to all interested women that "now is the time to put up or shut up". We are all responsible for reclaiming and recreating the centre to be the place we want it to be.

I am excited to be able to let you know that women have rallied to the cause. Large numbers of women have taken on responsibilities and contributed their time, energy, creativity, expertise, sense of humor, problem solving abilities, and commitment to the centre. Change is never easy. I have been around the Dallas gay and lesbian community for fifteen years. I have never seen this much positive lesbian energy focused on creating the kind of community we deserve to have. I encourage you to visit the centre to see and feel the changes for yourself.

I recently came across an advertisement in a national lesbian and gay publication that featured these words: "There is nothing sweeter than a promise kept. There is nothing more bitter than a promise broken". The current leadership of the centre which includes Carolyn, Dawyn, Diane, Helen, Lori, Lurese, Janice, Jeanne, Josi, Mariza, Mary, Pam, Rayva, Rosa, Susan, Tanea, Terri, Valery, Vicki, and I have made a promise to do our best for Womyn for Womyn. I am excited about the future. Thank you for all the kind words and helping hands that have been offered since the initial bitter shock of the resignations.

I honor the women who continue to serve the lesbian community. A special thank you must be extended to the Women's Southwest Federal Credit Union and those who have made and continue to provide major financial contributions to the centre.

Wherever you are, whatever you do . . . I encourage you to be good to yourself and all other women.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Membership Meeting of the Lesbian Resource Centre will be held on Sunday, October 24, 1993 from 2:00-4:00 p.m. LRC members will elect new Board members, vote on proposed By-Laws changes, give input on centre priorities, and conduct other business that may arise. Non-members are certainly encouraged to attend, as well. This is an excellent chance to meet the women providing leadership to the business activities of the Centre.

Dear Readers,

As many of you undoubtedly know by now, Christine resigned as Centre Director, effective September 7, 1993. Lisa Mashigian resigned, via letter, from the Board, and from her position as Membership coordinator. Deb F. also resigned from her various positions as database manager, liaison to the Credit Union, Coordinator of the By-Laws Committee, and all the other roles she took on when asked to do so. The departure of these women creates a void at the Centre, not only because of the amount of work each of them did, but because we will miss their very presence. Christine, Lisa, Deb: Thank you, from the Board, from the members, from your friends, for everything you have meant to the Lesbian Resource Centre. Your legacy will endure.

Life goes on. The remaining Board members are committed to ensuring that Womyn for Womyn, the non-profit organization, continues, and that the Lesbian Resource Centre remains a visible, viable space for all of us. As of this writing, we (the Board) are working toward that goal. We are taking care of the business of transition, and we will have filled the vacant Board positions by the time you read this. We face a formidable challenge: finding others to assume the tasks that these three women performed just in the day-to-day operations of the Centre. Women who attended the Board meeting Tuesday night indicated a willingness to help wherever needed, for which we thank them wholeheartedly. We may be calling some of you who weren't there, to help us, also. One way you can all help is by attending the Annual Meeting on Oct. 24, when the membership will vote on By-Laws changes and Board members, among other things. See the article elsewhere in this newsletter for further details.

It is a time of challenge for all of us; a time of growth, sometimes painfully so; a learning process for many who are not familiar with the mechanics of maintaining a non-profit organization. Are we equal to the challenge? We think we are. Are we looking forward to it? Let's face it, none of us in our right minds would have chosen this to happen, but since it has, we will rise to the occasion. If anyone wants to talk further about what has transpired, or has questions, call the Centre and ask to speak to a Board member; one of us will call you back. Read the HoneyPot for news on how things are progressing. To paraphrase/plagiarize Samuel Clemens, reports of our demise are greatly exaggerated: the Lesbian Resource Centre is ailing slightly, but we are very much alive!

In Sisterhood,

The Board of Directors, Lesbian Resource Centre

Lesbian Resource Center Policy Statement on Diversity

The Lesbian Resource Centre exists to create physical space where lesbians are valued for themselves. This space, committed to a feminist philosophy, will provide resources to all lesbians. We respect and encourage the diversity of our lesbian community. We believe that all lesbians are to be treated with respect that is reflected in words and actions. The lesbian community is diverse in race, creed, nationality, religion, physical ability, family status, age, economic status, political views, and lifestyle.

We will disagree from time to time with one another but no one is to be devalued or demeaned in the LRC "Safe Space". You have a right to expect an environment free of violation of personal, ethnic, racial, emotional, or physical space.

We welcome you to the Lesbian Resource Centre.

VOTING PRIVILEGES

Please be sure your membership dues are paid in order to vote at the annual meeting.

FOUNDING MOTHERS

Women who contribute $10 to the centre each month help to sustain the centre in a very special way. A very simple process of completing a bank draft card and membership form starts the system. The Womyn for Womyn Lesbian Resource Centre is assisted by being able to count on having the monthly financial income of Founding Mothers. What do they get for their money? These women get a safe space for them and their lesbian sisters, a way to support the growth of esteem for our lifestyle, and a place that stands for our right to be. Founding Mother contributions of $10 a month and other memberships buy and pay for the physical facility, networking monthly newsletter, Womyn for Womyn University classes, networking, phone line, dances for women, education and other social events, lesbian focused entertainment, etc.

Please consider putting your money into your dreams. You are very much needed at the Centre in every way. Please consider becoming a Founding Mother today by bank draft method.

WOMYN FOR WOMYN FOR UNIVERSITY

The November Term of Womyn for Womyn University is quickly approaching. The courses are continuing the tradition of womyn educating womyn. Each class cost only $3 for members, $5 for non-members, and free for Founding Mothers. Enrollment for the following courses is being accepted:

Holistic Health and Wellness
Introduction to the Personal Computer
Not Just for Lipstick Lesbians
Lesbian Dating

Please see the hot pink flyer enclosed to register. We look forward to seeing you.

Dear Editor,

I feel the tone of the article about Womyn en Cambio implies that this group is solely responsible for the changes that are taking place at the LRC, and I would like to respond to that point. First, the LRC Board had begun looking at the By-Laws well before WEC contacted them about the subject in August. The article also says that WEC initiated the diversity statement, which is news to me: the statement was presented to the Board as the work of one person, not a group of people, and certainly not the work of this particular group. The women who are forming WEC certainly are involved in bringing about change to the Centre, as are so many other women who are not affiliated with the group. My feeling is that we could substitute the name of any other group, committee, activity, etc., for WEC and write the same article. I am not in any way denigrating the involvement of Womyn en Cambio; I am simply pointing out they are not the only women working for change at the LRC. I want to make it clear that I am not speaking as a Board member; I am expressing my own feelings about the article.

ENTERTAINMENT RECOMMENDATIONS

* Go see "The Joy Luck Club" at the UA Theatre. What a joy it is to see real women in the movies. It also reminded me of the legacy we have received from the women who preceded us. See it with your friends, sisters, and mother. Current show times are 1:00, 4:10, 7:30 and 10:00.

* Get a group of friend and go enjoy the the State Fair of Texas. You may rediscover your playful side.

CALENDAR

Special thanks to Susan for this month's calendar. We are in need of a good calendar software, compatible with an Epson LQ500 printer; the one we had was removed from the Centre computer. Call the Centre and leave a message for Carolyn if you have one to donate. Thanks!

LOOKING AT THE LIBRARY!!

Have you visited the LRC Library lately? Here's what you are missing: a complete (so I've been told) collection of Agatha Christie mysteries; shelves of sci-fi/fantasy thrillers; Rita Mae Brown, Katherine Forrest, May Sarton - my favorite; AND the newly-categorized, non-fiction section! Check it out! Special thanks to Linda S. (stands for Sweetie) for working with me on organizing that section. A Librarian is on duty every Sunday from 1 - PM; come by to check out some books, if you're a member, or just to say hello.

NATIONAL COMING OUT DAY

The Lesbian Resource Centre is proud to be a sponsor of National Coming Out Day.

The sixth annual Coming Out Day (NCOD) will be celebrated on October 11, 7:30 p.m., with a forum at the Cathedral of Hope MCC.

Dr. Rob Eichberg, author of Coming Out: An Act of Love, and one of the organizers of the original Coming Out Day will be the keynote speaker. "Only by collective action and affirmation of who we are will people's attitudes change—including our own ability to appreciate ourselves as unique and valuable people," said Dr. Eichberg.

Several lesbians and gay men, some well-known locally as well as nationally, will join Dr. Eichberg to share their experiences in this celebration of truth and living powerfully. A member of Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (P-FLAG) also will recount his experiences of "coming out" as a parent of a gay man.

Encore, the community outreach ensemble of the Turtle Creek Chorale, and the Oak Lawn Band will provide entertainment. Admission is free, although a donation to offset expenses will be requested.

The original National Coming Out Day was held in 1988, to commemorate the anniversary of the first March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights. The Human Rights Campaign Fund now sponsors NCOD as a non-profit educational project with celebrations in cities across the U.S. NCOD events focus on supporting individuals in their own coming out process and on putting a face on lesbian/gay sexual orientation.

46% of Americans say they don't know anyone who is a homosexual.

The government's historically poor response to AIDS, discrimination in employment and the military, the rise of hate crimes and the perpetuation of anti-gay state initiatives are but a few graphic examples of how costly stereotypes and misinformation about the real lives of lesbians and gay men can be. National Coming Out Day seeks to change this ignorance one person at a time.

National Coming Out Day is 501(c)3 educational project of the Human Rights Campaign Fund. All contributions are tax-deductible to the full extent allowed by law.

For further information call Jim McBride, 350-8380, or Susan Gore, 348-4673.

CHAPTER TWO

This has been a busy week at the LRC. The Board has selected three new members, and two new officers. Our new members are Lori Strong, Pam Tise, and Dawynn Edwards. (Dawynn is, of course, an old new member.) Ann is our new Chair, and Dawynn is our new Vice-Chair. Several new committee coordinators have also been selected:

Carolyn - Newsletter
Lori & Pam - PR/Fund-Raising
Rayva - Special Events
Janice - Tuesday Night Discussion
Helen - Grant-Writing
Ann - Membership

These selections are effective until the Annual Meeting, October 24, when all eligible Board positions and committee coordinator roles will be filled on a permanent basis.

Tanea, Dawynn, and Mary are serving as the transition team, identifying tasks to do, and either doing those things themselves, or finding someone to do them. Such things we are doing! Painting, cleaning the office, cleaning the kitchen, re-loading the computer, finalizing proposed By-Laws changes, laying new flooring on the stage, talking, talking, and more talking! If you haven't been to the Centre lately, we invite you to come visit, see what's new, and meet some incredible women. The future of the LRC is full of promise; we are all excited about being part of that future!

Dear Sisters,

I have enjoyed many Friday night dinners and other programs at the Centre. I like the sharing that goes on, sometimes forming a group after the event for coffee or more socializing.

My concern is how we present the Centre as our home or space.

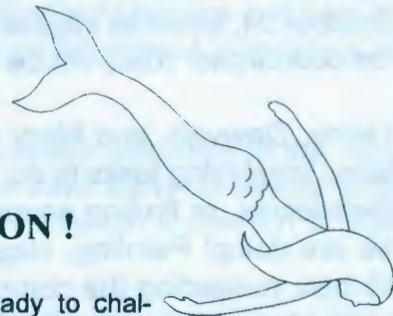

How do we make a first-time guest feel welcome? On the most basic level, who is bringing the toilet paper, paper towels and other needed supplies? Also, how do we clean up after ourselves?

We expect a lot of the person who locks up, that part of her job is to clean up after us. We are all caring for ourselves, and part of caring for ourselves needs to be caring for the Centre, also.

Next time you're at the LRC, take a look around: are we low on cloth towels, are we running out of coffee, do we need dish soap? Have you washed your dishes, crushed your cans, put your library book back where it belongs? Great! Now you are ready to head out the door -- have fun until we see you again!

"IDENTITY AND INTIMACY IN OUR LESBIAN RELATIONSHIPS"

THESE ARE THE THEMES FOR THE NEXT SEVERAL MEETINGS OF THE WEDNESDAY NIGHT DISCUSSION GROUP. IDENTITY AND INTIMACY ARE TOPICS LARGE ENOUGH TO ACCOMMODATE OUR STORIES, OUR ISSUES, OUR PASSIONS AND OUR POLITICS. "IDENTITY AND INTIMACY IN OUR LESBIAN RELATIONSHIPS" IS THE TITLE OF A BOOK BY JUDITH CANNON, PH. D., WHICH SHE HAS RECENTLY SUBMITTED TO A PUBLISHER. JUDY HAS GENEROUSLY OFFERED TO LET US USE HER INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY IN AN ONGOING EXPLORATION OF THESE CRITICAL LIFE ISSUES. THE NEXT MEETING IS WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6TH FROM 7:30 TO 9:00 PM. WE HOPE TO SEE YOU HERE!

THE DALLAS CHALLENGE IS ON !

Dallas swimmers are ready to challenge teams from throughout the region and across the nation. On October 9, the Trinity River Aquatic Club (TRAC) is hosting a one-day short course meet in conjunction with the Team Dallas Sports and Cultural Festival. This meet will probably be the biggest of its kind in this area prior to the Gay Games next summer in New York city.

The meet will be held in the Perkins Natatorium on the SMU campus. This six-lane indoor pool is equipped with electric timing equipment guaranteeing us the most accurate results.

The Columbus Day weekend will be a great time to be in Dallas. The annual State Fair of Texas will be in full swing, and the traditional football rivalry between the University of Texas and Oklahoma University will be played in all its splendor. Further, the Team Dallas Sports and Cultural Festival will attract lesbian/gay teams nation-wide for bowling, billiards, tennis, volleyball, running, softball and more. In conjunction with the sports festival will be concerts and wild parties!

So make plans to be here over the Columbus Day Weekend (October 8-11). For travel arrangements and lodging information, call Travel Source at (214) 520-8844 or 1-800-374-7771. For additional swim information call David Holland at (214) 388-5317.
