VETERANS DAY

DO ASK! DO TELL!

Nearly a decade has passed since the institution of the "Don't Ask, Don't Tell, Don't Pursue" policy of the U.S. Armed Forces.

But not much has changed.

- Soldiers are still forced out.
- Few soldiers are willing to come out.
- More soldiers are willing to stay in the closet - out of fear.

That will eventually change, but in the meantime, what can you do to help change this discriminatory policy.

Let your congressperson know how you feel! Write or e-mail them with your point of view.

Then thank a veteran.
Then thank a gay veteran.

TRANSGENDERED:

*those who cross the gap between the genders,
to be the person that they are,
instead of the mass produced mold dictated by others.*

Transgenders are as common as your next door neighbor or coworker. Yet, as childhood laughter often leads to adult doubt, many are taught to have such a sense of guilt and fear that we go throughout our lives without telling anyone; often thinking that we are alone. What's so bad about being a woman or a man? Amazingly, clothes can be seen as dangerous to many people!

Most people are simply unaware of the varieties that we, as human beings, naturally come in. TV and advertising use the sensational, or the comic, to sell tickets and products. Parents and teachers, or other interested parties, attempting to own and operate our lives, tell us to "be this, not that." The difference between the way we are told to be, as opposed to the way that we really are, can be as great as the difference between those friendly jeans and that dangerous dress!

GENDER OUTREACH OKLAHOMA

WEDNESDAYS
AT THE TULSA
GLBT CENTER

THE FACTS

Recent research indicates that as many as 1 in 20, (5%) of people cross dress to some extent. Most are heterosexual (straight), many are married. Different people's interest will range from the very occasional to the frequent, an erotic turn-on to imitation (the sincerest flattery), to an expression of ones' innermost personality.

Only a very few pursue a "sex change." the vast majority like and will keep their gender, yet, will on occasion, express the other part of themselves and their unique personality

Today, reflecting changes in society, many are more comfortable with transgenering. Movies such as "Just Like A Woman", "The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert", "To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything - Julie Newmar", "ma vie en rose", and others portray transgenders in a humanly positive way.

This recent view is more in line with our earlier history, when transgendered people were not only accepted, but elevated and ascribed with the wisdom, befitting a "Twin Souled" person. In social evolution, as cultures became divided into different classes, transgenering seemed to go underground.

Over a century ago, most transgenders were women, taking on both the role of men, and the freedom and opportunity that it afforded. At least 400 women, for instance, fought as men during the Civil War.

Today, women who dress in 'mens' clothing are rarely even noticed, as they have more freedom to cross social barriers than men, dressing as they please. Men however, may be sarcastically told: "don't be a sissy" as if femininity were a sin.

Men are dictated to be one half of a person: that bordering on the strong, tough side. Women are taught to be the other half of a person, centered around the weaker, more expressive side. For many people, transgenering is a sort of bridge to express the side denied them, thus enabling them to express the full range of human emotion.

Transgendered individuals have to come to accept themselves and we, as the Gay, Lesbian, Bi and Transgendered Allied community, must in turn accept transgenders. After all, we are all human.

CREATING CHANGE

TOHR SENDING REPS TO NATIONAL GATHERING OF ACTIVISTS

Each year, thousands of GLBT allied individuals and activists descend upon an American city for a long weekend and come back home filled with new ideas and energy to keep the gay, lesbian, bi and transgender equal rights movement alive and well.

"Creating Change", sponsored by the National Gay & Lesbian Task Force brings thousands together to explore new visions for the movement, to debate new strategies for change and to celebrate collective accomplishments.

TOHR is sending two (2) board members, Ms. Dee
Beasley and Mr. Vance Reed to represent TOHR, Tulsa and Oklahoma at this years conference in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. (according to Dee, Milwaukee is the top lesbian destination in the U.S.,)

This month - a controversial subject

FACTS ABOUT THE DEATH PENALTY

- On January 25, 1993 the Supreme court decided in Herrera vs. Collins that inmates would not be given another hearing after their last appeal was used, even if new evidence is found proving their innocence. As a result, Jesse Jacobs was executed in TX with the approval of George W. Bush on 1/5/95 even though DNA evidence proved he was innocent - admitted even by the prosecutor of his case.
- The death penalty was established before the 'Life without Parole' sentence was established.
- Only 1 in 100 people charged with murder are sentenced to death. The penalty for the case is determined by the prosecutor and the judge, so can be discriminately given. Because of this, inmates on death row are disproportionately minority, with even Supreme Court justices admitting that death sentences are given randomly, mainly based on race.
- Chances of receiving the death sentence drastically increase if represented by public defenders or court appointed attorneys, which is the main source of defense for minority, poor, mentally ill, and mentally retarded individuals.
- The death penalty has been abolished as cruel and unusual punishment by 108 nations, 30 since 1990.
- The United States is one of the top 5 most prolific executioners in the world, following China, Democratic Republic of Congo and Iran.
- The United States is the leader of only 6 countries still legally allowed to sentence minors to death. The other five are Saudi Arabia, Iran, Iraq, Yemen and Pakistan.

Tulsa Oklahomans for Human Rights (TOHR) does not endorse the above. TOHR wishes to educate the GLBT-allied community.

WHERE DO THEY STAND?

OKLAHOMA DEMOCRATS PARTY RESOLUTIONS HIGHLIGHTING THE ISSUES AFFECTING THE GLBT COMMUNITY

TOHR's focus on the various political parties in the Tulsa area and where they stand on GLBT related issues.

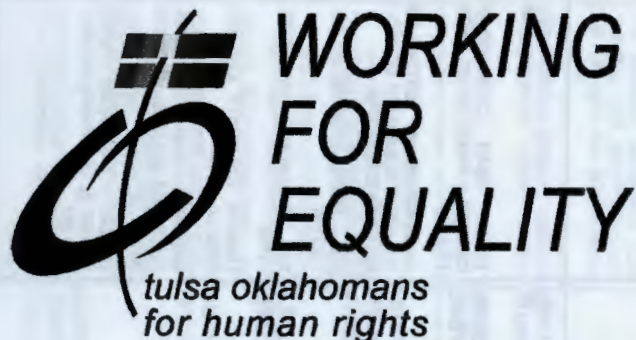

HUMAN RIGHTS

- The Oklahoma Democratic Party respects and upholds the civil, human and equal rights of every person.
- The Oklahoma Democratic Party affirms the role of government at all levels in providing education and protection of the basic civil and human rights of every person regardless of race, ethnicity, color, national origin, age, gender, gender identity, sexual nature or orientation, religion, creed, disability, employment, civil service or political affiliation, and of which may be actual or perceived; and,
- The Oklahoma Democratic Party supports the passage of hate crime laws and the improved reporting and monitoring of hate crimes with appropriate legislation necessary to enforce the protection of the basic civil, human, and equal rights of every person without exception.
- The Oklahoma Democratic Party supports the reproductive freedom of every woman, which means that every woman has the right to decide for herself when to bear children, and commits to the correction of economic and social factors that contribute to unintended pregnancies.
- The Democratic Party of Oklahoma recognizes that while the citizens of our state have benefited from a 'tough on crime' approach to law enforcement and prosecution, our judicial system must be equally diligent in preventing the conviction and execution of innocent persons.
- The Democratic Party of Oklahoma supports a two-year moratorium on the death penalty to evaluate the effectiveness of our own system of justice to do no harm to the innocent, and to provide DNA testing, and other appropriate forensic testing, for all capital punishment cases at state expense to make certain that no innocent person is wrongly convicted and put to death.

The above are excerpts from the 2001 Democratic State Party Resolutions. Complete copies of the resolutions are available for viewing at okdemocrats.org or at the Tulsa Gay, Lesbian, Bi and Transgender Community Center, 2114 South Memorial.

A SWIFT RESPONSE

GLBT ALLIED COMMUNITY URGED TO WRITE TO LOCAL ADVERTISERS

Members of the TOHR board and membership were recently made aware of an article, "Can Homosexuality Be Healed," in a local publication.

Community Spirit, a Christian magazine available for free at various locations, included the article in it's Special Family Health Issue.

The following is a sample letter that has been sent to many of the advertisers in the magazine. Feel free to copy or use as a guide to write additional letters to advertisers.

Re: October 2001 issue of "Community Spirit"

Dear _____;

A very thin line separates inflammatory rhetoric and hate-speech. That line was crossed when Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson, U.S. based right-wing fundamentalists, blamed the attacks on the United States on, among other groups, the Gay, Lesbian, Bi and Transgender community. Those remarks brought nationwide condemnation.

The same line is being walked on by the local publication "Community Spirit," of which your company is an advertiser.

While claiming "not to inflame," Community Spirit and their supporters do so even though not realizing their "outreach" can do damage physically and psychologically. Individuals, youth in particular, can fall prey to falsehoods and lies and be brought into a world that teaches intolerance and preaches hate disguised as love.

Such "outreach" can contribute to hate crimes and even suicides. If a youth or an adult who is beginning to accept their sexuality - the way God made them - listens to such rhetoric the consequences can be horrific.

- Suicide among youth who identify as GLBT is dramatically higher than their counterparts who identify as heterosexual.
- In other cases, individuals unable to deal with their sexuality early in their lives live a lie that can result in entire families being ruined.

This can be prevented. Acceptance of all human beings, whether they be Gay, Lesbian, Bi, Transgender or heterosexual, is critical to prevent further damage that can be done to countless lives.

Free speech is a constitutionally protected right and one that should be defended by every American. However, that same free speech can cause tragedy when it preaches "hate the sin, love the sinner." This attitude can lead to a hate of the sinner resulting in beatings and sometimes death.

Your company can take a stand against discrimination, condemnation and hate when you do not advertise in publications such as "Community Spirit." Without your support, institutions that attempt to "cure" homosexuality cannot continue to spread falsehoods resulting in potential damage to literally thousands of people.

As a member of the Gay, Lesbian, Bi and Transgender allied community of Tulsa, I urge you to immediately stop advertising in "Community Spirit" or similar publications.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Board of Directors of Tulsa Oklahomans for Human Rights (TOHR) at 918.743.4297.

Sincerely,

It was the night before Saturday

(Friday, Dec. 14)

And all through the City

(7:00 PM - Midnight)

Not a Creature was Stirring.

All were getting Pretty

(and meeting at the Center at 7 PM)

I Jumped on the Bus.

($15 / person)

To see What was Up

(Holiday Lights & Bar Bus Tour!)

When lo & behold

it seemed Quite Corrupt!

(it's a bunch of gay folk!)

So - I joined them

And we Dashed away, dashed Away

(Utica Square, "the lake", Historic Tulsa areas, etc.)

Dashed Away All

(though only 50 seats available)

We saw lights, then Drank some.

(visiting Tulsa Gay & Lesbian bars!)

Drank some More and went AAAAAH!

Ooohing & Aahhhing

(from the lights)

all night long

(ok - just half the night)

We Frolicked & Danced,

we Rode and sang songs

(ride the bus - don't drink & drive)

As Night turned to Day

(bus back at Center around 12 am)

We went our separate Way

(that's the intention)

Hoping for Peace on Earth

And a Good Nights

(call 743.4297 now to reserve your seat)
